PRAYER

“DISCIPLESHIP, HERE WE COME!”

“God – His way is perfect; the Word of the LORD is pure. He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him. For who is God besides the LORD? And who is a Rock? Only our God. God – He clothes me with strength and makes my way perfect.” PSALMS 18:30 – 32

What a beautiful day to worship our Father, Creator, and Savior! I want to thank the elders for the opportunity of working with the discipleship part of our ministry. Thanks to, Keith for allowing me his space on the bulletin. And thanks to all who have inquired about where we are at with all of this.

Joe Mohorn and I have been working to organize the thoughts so that all our ministries will be oriented toward discipleship and lastly, for growth. We want to host a Seminar with Dr. Roger Shepherd, on August 9 – 12. I started this morning with Harry Fitzgerald’s class on the introduction to Discipleship. I will be teaching in all the adult classes and the teens. Praise God for this blessing that He is bringing to us!

I want to begin by asking two questions, “Are you a disciple of Christ?” I know your answer is a resounding, yes! The second is “Are you discipling others?” Let me explain the terms – A disciple is a follower of Jesus Christ. Your aim is to be obedient to Him and His teachings. A discipler teaches others is to help them follow Jesus. Mark Dever put it this way, “Discipling is deliberately doing spiritual good to someone so that he or she will be more like Christ.”

n the Great Commission, Jesus instructed His followers to make disciples – MATT.28:18 – 20. This command applies to ALL who follow Jesus, not just preachers, and missionaries. ROM.12:3 – 8; I COR.12:7 – 31; EPHESIANS 4:7 – 12; and Ist Peter 4:10 – 11.

Effective discipleship is built on a godly message, a godly manner, and a godly motive. Pleasing God from the heart, seeking His glory, not our own. May God bless our ministry as we make more disciples!

Good morning everyone. It’s good to be with you this morning!

Last week I gave you a small excerpt of a book I was recommended, A Diary of Private Prayer by John Baillie. This week I would like to give you another piece of it. I would highly recommend this book if you enjoy prayer, but you have a hard time being consistent.

“O Lord, all treasures of wisdom and truth and holiness are stored up in your boundless being. Grant that through our constant fellowship, these graces of Christian character may more and more take shape within me:

The grace of a thankful and uncomplaining heart;

The grace to await your timing patiently and to answer your call promptly;

The grace of courage whether in suffering or in danger;

The grace to endure any hardship in the fight against evil;

The grace of boldness to stand up for what is right;

The grace of being adequately prepared for any temptation;

The grace of physical discipline;

The grace of truthfulness;

The grace to treat others as I would like them to treat me;

The grace of sensitivity, that I may refrain from hasty judgement;

The grace of silence, that I may refrain from thoughtless speech;

The grace of forgiveness toward all who have wronged me;

The grace of tenderness toward all who are weaker than myself;

The grace of faithfulness in continuing to desire that you will answer these prayers.

And now, O God, give me a quiet mind as I lie down to rest. Dwell in my thoughts until sleep overtakes me. Do not let me be worried by the small anxieties of this life. Do not let any troubled dreams disturb me, so that I may wake refreshed and ready for all that tomorrow brings.”

There are sixty-two prayers in the book, a morning and evening prayer for each day of the month. As you can probably guess by the last paragraph, this is an evening prayer. So as you head home after church and lay down for your post-church nap, just read through this prayer! Have a great nap ;)
