Aug. 18, 2019

ROMANS 3:9 – 12

1. Man _____ to think he is good.
2. He has _____ himself that he is.
3. He ought to be able to _____ himself on the back.
4. Guilt can cause all types of problems

_____, _____,
_____, _____, hate and divorce.

Conclusion: There is only one way to get rid of _____, the _____, of Jesus!

MATTHEW 18:21 – 22

1. We are to enter the _____ like children.
2. Forgiveness is the key to _____.
3. Forgiveness is the expression of God's loving _____.

The Lord Who Goes Before You

We can be confident wherever we go God has already been

I know that today will be a good day for this church family. Once again, my family is away – this time we are in Edmond, OK getting Clay settled into his dorm and his new life at Oklahoma Christian. We ask for your prayers as we make this family transition.

This is a week that I've been dreading all summer for a couple of reasons. Of course, there is the emotional challenge of dropping your child off at college for the first time. Clay was born while we were missionaries in Chile – we've watched him grow into a fine young man with plans and dreams and aspirations. I know that we're not the only ones to have walked this road – and we're not the only ones who are walking it this summer as other parents have already taken their kids off to college or are doing so this weekend. Our prayer is for all of the young people who have grown up at Robinson Avenue that God will continue to light their way; and of course we pray for each and every parent who is experiencing new emotions at this time.

This will be an emotional week for us for another reason. Wednesday marks the one year anniversary of my dad's passing. Incidentally, I'll be preaching in Waxahachie, TX on Wednesday night for their Summer Series. It wasn't entirely planned out that I would be there to preach on the anniversary of his passing but in many ways I think that it will be a good opportunity for me to say "thank you" to the church family that has been so good to my parents and that has continued to support my mom through a season of grief.

This is the verse that I'm holding in my mind this week: "The Lord himself goes before you and will be with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged" Deut. 31:6. What a powerful truth that the Lord goes before us. Grief? He's already been there. Separation? He's experienced it. Even though he has nothing to fear he is well acquainted with all of the things that make us fearful. This is the promise that I'm clinging to this week. May God bless your worship to Him today!

-Keith Kilmer

Caleb Says...

Good morning everyone! I hope your morning has been great so far and if not, it's about to get better! You're in the best place you could be.

Now, I have a question for you! Do you feel like you have a decent sense of style? Whatever your answer may be, you could always use an upgrade! RAVE Youth Ministry is ordering shirts for the next year. These shirts are not limited to teens and adults who act like teens. No, these shirts are for parents, grandparents, volunteers, and anyone else who enjoys stylish and comfortable shirts. To order your very own, go to raveyouth.org and click on the "T-shirt" tab at the top of the home page. We have two different shirt designs available. Feel free to order one or both. Please fill out the form once for every shirt ordered. The price will be around $15 per shirt depending on how many we order. The deadline for ordering will be this coming Wednesday, August 21. Talk to me, Caleb Tomlinson, if you have any questions.

With the space I have remaining, I would like to just put out there what I came away with from last weekend's seminar. Roger Shepherd, a professor at Amridge University, came and taught several classes on discipleship. Side note, we have his talks on video if you're interested in watching them for yourself.

I have been to seminars similar to Roger's before. They are always beneficial in different ways, but I am a guy who wants a step-by-step methodology on how to do something. I am the guy who reads the manual before I do something. However, in the past when someone has come along and offered "practical" steps for discipleship in the church, their suggestions are often not practical at all. They focus more on the theology and theory of discipleship rather than on the "How To Do" part. I am pleased to say that Roger's seminar was immensely practical as well as informative, biblical, and contemplative.

I am very optimistic about the coming weeks, months, and years. Why? We have a ton of work to do. You and I face a monumental task: being a disciple maker. It's not easy.

There are a few things you need to accomplish any task:

1. Motivation. What is yours motivation to be a disciple/disciple maker?
2. Tools. What skills do you have to be a disciple/disciple maker?
3. Object of your Work. Who can you show the love of Jesus to?

I am optimistic because our family here is highly motivated because we love Jesus and want others to know him too. I am optimistic because our family is blessed with a wide array of spiritual gifts and a Holy Spirit that can use anything we give Him. Lastly, I am optimistic because, after this weekend, we know how to begin. Get ready. Robinson Avenue is on a mission and we aren't turning back.
