CLOSING PRAYER

Welcome Back to Church!

Thank you for joining us on Back to Church Sunday

KEITH KILMER - Today is a day that we have been praying for and planning for some time. We are so glad that you are here to share this occasion with us. If you are one of our guests, we are especially thankful that you are here. Please know that you were invited to church today because there is someone who cares about you and values your friendship. We hope to have the opportunity today to renew friendships and make new friends. You are always welcome here!

The text for today's lesson will be John 13:34-35: "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples if you love one another." Most of us are familiar with the Golden Rule (Matt. 7:12), but this raises the bar even higher – we might refer to this as the Platinum Rule. The Platinum Rule calls us to love one another just as Jesus loved us. In church, we don't just learn about love, but we also learn to love. Over the course of time and through our interactions with one another we learn valuable lessons and see living examples of love in action. This is one of the great blessings of belonging to a church family.

We invite you today to experience this love for yourself. Participate in worship as we express our love to the one who first loved us; enjoy a meal with us after the worship assembly – this will be a great time to share and laugh together; stick around for some additional singing and a performance from the Good News Singers from Harding University (I've heard them sing – they're great!!!). Our prayer is that you will be blessed and encouraged today and will want to come back and be a part of our family!
