Some Assembly Required

It was important to the early church to come together (Acts 11:25-26, Acts 14:27; I Cor. 5:4, I Cor. 11:18)

Coming together wasn't just nice – it was necessary (Heb. 11:24-25)

Sunday (the first day of the week) was a special time of assembly (Acts 20:6-7)

Matt. 18:20

Coming Together

God's people assembling is as important as ever

Keith Kilmer - It's hard to believe that only two months remain in 2017! We're entering into a busy and festive time of the year. This is also a great time to serve. Yesterday there was a work day in preparation for the annual clothing give-away to be held this coming Saturday. This has been such a tangible way to serve our community over the years, and I know that many families look forward to bringing their children to get outfitted and prepared for winter.

Continue to pray for our youth leaders and elders as they search for a new youth minister. I'm so proud of our RAVE Youth Group and their hearts for service. In regard to our youth, I have some big news to share: yesterday in Georgia the Atlanta Intercity Ministry (AIM) held its annual Victory Banquet, and at that celebration our youth group was recognized as "Volunteer of the Year" for their work over the summer (and over the past 9 years) at Camp Wetoga! Having been a part of this effort myself, I can testify to how hard our young people work and how selfless they are during this annual mission trip. Continue to encourage our teens in all of their endeavors.

Today we are blessed to be able to come together and worship God. Our prayer is that God will be glorified in all that we say and do today. We enjoy the unity and fellowship of gatherings like this. As we will see during the sermon – this "coming together" has been a key for the church since its inception. The Hebrew writer urged his readers not to neglect this habit but to be even more consistent in coming together as the day of Jesus' return draws ever nearer.

God has saved us and brought us into the church for a reason. Our faith is lived out and expressed in the context of community. The things that we do for the glory of God are done together. We work, serve, worship, pray, carry burdens, evangelize, and minister together. On the first day of the week that togetherness is felt and cemented as we go together before the throne of God.
