Jesus our Host

Our savior and Lord has invited us here

Keith Kilmer - Have you ever been especially honored by an invitation that you received? Maybe you were invited to your bosses' house. Perhaps you received an invitation to be the honoree at some significant event. It could be that a person who you greatly admire extended an invitation to you to eat and fellowship with him or her.

As we study and participate in the Lord's Supper this morning, please think about the fact that Jesus has invited us to gather around his table. This is the truth that we sing about when we sing the song He Meets Us Here with the line that says "He meets us here, he breaks the bread, the Lord who pours the cup is risen from the dead." Christ not only joins us but he serves us.

The Gospel of Luke tells us of many feasts, banquets, and dinners that Jesus participated in. Each occasion was an opportunity for him to impart grace and bless those in attendance. Some, like the Pharisees, missed the blessing because their hearts were hard; others, like Zacchaeus, were humbled and changed by their encounter with Christ. We know very little about the menu or food choices that were offered on these occasions – but all of that was secondary to the divine company that was kept.

What will become of us after we leave the Lord's table this morning? Will we leave unchanged like the Pharisees or humbled, repentant, and joyful like Zacchaeus? Much depends on our thoughts and attitudes as commune with Christ and one another today. Let's accept this invitation with great joy and anticipation!

Adoption

Exciting additions to our church family!

DJ and Megan Johnson, a young couple in our Transitions class, have begun the process of adopting three little girls that are sisters, ages 3 years, 2 years, and 5 months. It is likely that the girls will be placed in the Johnson’s home within the next few weeks. On Sunday night, October 29th, after the 5th Sunday singing service, we will have a Celebration Shower to rejoice with the Johnsons and help them prepare their home and hearts for these three precious baby girls. The girls wear sizes 2T-3T, 24 months, and 6 months. There will also be a money/gift card tree available at the shower if you would like to donate to get larger items that the girls will need. DJ and Megan also request prayers for patience and guidance as they begin this new journey. They ask for wisdom as they raise these girls in a home where they know God’s love and grace. They want to be an example of loving, Christian parents to these sweet girls. If you have any questions regarding the Celebration Shower, please contact Julia Simkins or Michele Kilmer.
